

Precious Alize' Johnson

May 24, 2002 - September 13, 2002

Precious Alize' Johnson, the daughter of Sabrina Johnson and Clyde Tilmon, was born May 24, 2002 at Harbor Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on September 13, 2002, after hearing the voice of the Lord saying "Precious, Come Home". Precious, was often called wiggles by her father because she was always moving around. She was a joyful and happy baby. She enjoyed looking at trees and playing with her brothers and sisters. Precious had a smile that no one could resist. She brought joy to every one that met her. She was cute and very intelligent for an infant her age. God sent his angel, "Precious" to us for only a short period of time, just long enough for the people around her to experience true love and joy. When He felt that her job was done, God called His angel home. Precious leaves to celebrate her life, her mother, Sabrina Johnson; Clyde Tilmon, of Baltimore, Maryland; three brothers, David Johnson of Patterson, NJ, Mark Brown II, and Anthony Thompson; five sisters, Monique Brown, Danielle Brown, Tynika Tilmon, Tameka Tilmon and Hydeia Brim; grandparents, Flora Johnson of Patterson, NJ., and Frances Tilmon. She was predeceased by one brother, John Thompson, and grandfathers, Edward L. Johnson and early Tilmon, a host of aunts, uncles, cousins other relatives and godparents, Latoya Armstrong and Brandon.
