

Precious A. Nwaehiri

September 17, 1989 - May 24, 2019

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course...." II Timothy 4:7

On Friday, May 24th, 2019, Precious Adamma Nwaehiri departed this earthly life. Precious was born to Maria Ayoka and Callixtus Nwaehiri on September 17th, 1989. She was the Second born and first daughter. From an early age Precious loved music and to dance. She was very friendly and had many friends growing up. Like many children she loved to sing and dance and fill the neighborhood with cheer.

Precious received her education at Perry Hall High School. In school she was very goal oriented and driven. She was very hard working and achieved high grades and was adored by teachers and classmates. Precious always had ambitions of passing the bar exam to become a lawyer, she wanted to help people in less fortunate situations.

Precious was never afraid of being herself and was always sincere about how she felt. She had such a loving heart and was always there to lend an ear if you needed it. She was such a bright soul bursting with energy. Precious loved children, she would often watch over her nephew Justin and her niece Legacy. There was nothing the two loved more than to be with their beloved aunt.

She attended Mass regularly always anxious to hear the word of God. Always wearing her Sundays best. Precious loved to dress up, she was always on top of the latest trends, she loved to shop and be in social settings. Precious was nothing short of a social butterfly: They say a butterfly is a tiny rainbow giving off its blessing in its travels flying all around town to amplify inner light deep in the soul and wisdom, so understanding becomes rampant.

She left to cherish her memory: Two brothers Prince and Kingler Nwaehiri; Two sisters Chioma and Kelechi Nwaehiri; Sister-in-law Malaysia Nwaehiri; Aunt Eugenia Nwaehiri; Cousins Lydia Eze-Sankara, And a host of many beloved family members.
