

Predensia Marianna McKay

November 14, 1927 - November 30, 2001

Predensia Marianna Lewellyn McKay, better known to some as “Miss Marian” or “Miss Mama”, born in Cornwall Mountain Westmoreland, Jamaica, on November 14, 1927, died November 30, 2001. Miss Marian the first of two children of Daisy Wallfall and Samuel Lewellyn, lived a life that is a testimony of God’s constancy in the life of his people. She attended the Savanna-La-Mar Government School in Westmoreland, Jamaica. Miss. Marian, was loved by a great many people most of all by her husband Hubert McKay, whom she married in March 6, 1968. Their union produced eight children, twenty-one grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Miss. Marian returned their love unreservedly, traveling back and forth between the United States and Jamaica time after time to help raise her grand children when her children had problems obtaining or affording child care. Miss. Marian never hesitated to lend a helping hand, share a kind word or offered her home to the many friends of her children. She was member of the Holiness Born Again Apostolic Church for many years and later a member of the Wesleyan Holiness Church. In 1989, she migrated to the United States, eventually joining the Baltimore Central Church of God where she made numerous friends, always having an encouraging word for others. Her humble attitude endeared her to many and her selfless devotion to her family gained much admiration. She survived by: her husband Hubert, children, Verna (Gem), Marcell (Peaches), Jacqueline, Viviene, Paul, Andrea, Claude (Mark) and Colleen (Hope); step-children, Marcia and Herbert; grandchildren, Adron, Richard, Marsha, Delroy, Michelle,

Ryan, Jheri-lee, Dane, Asha, Fasha, Matthew, Faldon, Fendi, Ajani, Farnel, Franz, Sharlene, Shani, Shamar, Sean and Seth; great grandchildren, Sasha, Shane and Noah; brother, Winston; sons-in-law, Michael, Robert, Luis and Courtney; daughters-in-law, Joyce and Angela and other relatives and friends.
