“ I offer my sincere sympathy to the family of Mr Pricie. It's a very heartbreaking thing when a family loses a loved one in death. Know that the God of all comfort is there for you, who comforts us through all of our tribulations. 2nd Cor 1:3,4 One day he promises to end all sickness, sorrow, and death in the very near future. 1st Cor 15:26 promises: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Will we see our dead loved ones again? Yes! John 5:25 says: "The hour is coming, and it is now,when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who have given heed will live." Then verses 28,29 says: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Although your hearts may be heavy now, rejoice in the hope, because one day your loved one will come back to life again. May your precious memories of Henry help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Henry, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
