

Princess A, Hadley

September 13, 1965 - June 17, 2016

Princess Arletha Hadley, daughter of the late Kate Lee Hadley and Fred Demery was born on September 13, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was called home by the Lord on June 17, 2016 at 4:15 p.m. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System where received her High School Diploma from Lake Clifton Senior High School. Ms. Hadley was a very caring and wonderful person. She was often referred to as “Lady” by her son. She took care of everyone in her immediate family. She was a mother and best friend to her son, who she raised from a child to become a leader and responsible man. She was daughter and mother to her mom, who became disabled and she took care of for 20 years of her life. She was little sister, big sister and mom to her brother, who gave the family many challenges, but she was there by his side. Princess never married but held a special bond with the father of her child, James Anthony Ghee. She made friends wherever she went and was respected by all she encountered. During her life she came to know many people, but two individuals she always kept dear to her heart and thought of them as family was her best friend Melvin McKelvin, “Jerome” and her child's godmother, Naomi “Squeaky”. Princess was preceded in death by: her mother, Kate Lee Hadley; father, Fred Demery; brother, Vernon Lee Hadley; and best friend Melvin McKelvin “Jerome”. She leaves to mourn; her son Mark Ghee; her child's father, James Ghee; her child's grandmother, Sarah Hargraves; best friend, Naomi “Squeaky”; aunt Martha Corbin; uncle, James Corbin; along with a host of cousins, nephews, nieces, and other relatives and friends.
