

Priscilla Ann Davis

March 6, 1947 - December 2, 2025

PRISCILLA ANN DAVIS, affectionately known as “Ceal,” was born on March 6, 1947, in Baltimore, Maryland, to the late Irene and Johnny Brown. On December 2, 2025, Ceal peacefully departed this life due to a sudden illness, surrounded by love and held in the hearts of all who knew her.

Ceal received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She later continued her studies at Coppin State College, proudly earning her degree and her cosmetology licensee

Ceal lived a life filled with joy, laughter, and connection. She had an unwavering love for bingo, a place where she found community, competition, and endless stories to share. Bingo wasn’t just a hobby; it was her happy place. She enjoyed spending time with friends in her building, sharing conversation, laughter, and her warm personality. She believed deeply in taking care of people, and her well-known motto reflected her heart: “If they are hungry, feed ’em.”

Everyone who encountered her felt welcomed, accepted, and loved. Ceal’s generosity was effortless. She had a way of turning strangers into family and ordinary days into memories. Her presence lit up every room, and her kindness left lasting fingerprints on countless lives.

Ceal was preceded in death by her husband Carlton Davis, her son Nathan, and her siblings Janet, Johnnie, Ronald Brown, Kenneth Sr., Victor Sr., Andria Brown, Roslyn Johnson and Charlene Brown.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Robert, Margaret, Tony, and Robin; siblings, Barbara Wiley, Leon Brown, Pam Brown, Cynthia, Edith, Mary Thomas, Valarie, Martha, Victor, Michael and JB. She is also survived by 22 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Though she will be missed beyond measure, Ceal's memory will forever live on through her love, her laughter, and the countless moments she shared with those blessed to know her. Her life was a testament to compassion, community, and the beauty of giving without expecting anything in return.

Ceal leaves behind a legacy of warmth and generosity that will continue to shine through her family, friends, and everyone whose life she touched.

She will be deeply missed, but her spirit will live on in the hearts of all who loved her.
