“ I was privileged to know and care for Purcell for almost 20 years. He had a difficult and challenging life but retained his spirit and perseverance. I am glad he is no longer suffering, but the lessons in humanity he taught many of us will live on. I am thankful he allowed me to be of service to him during our years at the VA SCI. I am also appreciative of his service in the US Marine Corps, of which I know he was very proud.
