

Quartrina K. Johnson

December 25, 1988 - July 20, 2004

Quartrina Kisha Johnson was the beloved daughter of Quarnoda Sellars and James (Chris) Johnson, loving granddaughter of Marian Goodman and the late Bryant Sellars and dear great granddaughter of William and Marian McCoy. Quartrina received her education in Baltimore City Schools and at Woodlawn Middle School in Baltimore County. In the fall, she would have started school at Milford Mill Senior High School. Quartrina was an honor student. Her dreams were upon graduating from high school and attending Spelman University in Atlanta, Georgia where she wanted to major in business with a minor in music. Quartrina was known to her family and friends as "Snappy," a nice name that fitted her quick and bubbly personality. She was a well-liked child with a quick mind and giving heart, ensuring that she had a host of friends who will miss her. She was outgoing, but she also loved to take time to reflect on the serious side of life. She mapped out her future at an early age and strived to attain the goals she set for herself. Quartrina leaves to cherish a memory her devoted parents, Quarnoda Sellars and James Johnson; grandmothers, Marian Goodman and Hattie Bea Johnson; loving great-grandparents, William and Marian McCoy; sister, Lakeshia and Latonya Fillyaw and Arianna Jackson; brothers, Tyshawn and John Jackson, Jr. and Toschio Dodd, special fathers, James Fillyaw and John Jackson; eight aunts and three uncles; special aunts, Romelia (Che Che) Carter and Shirley Johnson and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Trina till this day I think of you. I miss you so much. I miss hearing you call me Nene. I remember that one night me you and Shaday was up reading the Bible and we was just up talking about life. I also remember the last time we talked and you was telling me we needed to start hanging out more after we left. Right after you past my first tattoo was a rest in peace to you and it's right over my heart where you will always be. Till we meet again I love you Trina

“ Please accept our condolences in this time of great sorrow for you. We believe that the love you shared will help sustain you and bring you peace. Although you might find little solace in the why behind your sorrow. The one you love is gone from here, and this changes not tomorrow. If loss comes, too, with tragedy, its harder even still, to believe such pain was preference, much less somebody's will. God Bless you and Your Family##imported-begin##Brenda Royster & Family##imported-end##

“ Please accept my belated condolences for your loss. The Bible rightly calls death our enemy, that same verse promises that death will be destroyed.(First Corinthians 15:26) There is a beautiful hope for our loved ones who have died. Daniel 12:2 says- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." May these divinely inspired promises give you much hope and strength.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my regrets. The Bible makes it clear that death was not a part of God's original purpose for the earth. But we are comforted by HIS promise that "the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing."(1 Corinthians 15:26) We anxiously look forward to that time.##imported-begin##Lockley##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation.
(2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-
