

Queen E. Boots-Ovid

December 17, 1931 - December 25, 2018

QUEEN ESTHER BOOTS-OVID, daughter of the late Richard Sr. and Leola Evans, was born on December 17, 1931 in Baltimore, MD. After a short bout with several illnesses, she was called home on December 25, 2018 to be with the Lord.

Affectionately known as “Queenie”, she received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. She was a huge supporter of the Carver Vocational Alumni Association. Queenie worked as a cashier at Penn Fruit Supermarket and was later employed by the Federal Government from 1966-1994 at The Personnel Investigative Center in Dundalk, Maryland until retirement.

She was a very strict parent, and devoted mother who made sure her sons were exposed to all types of recreational and educational experiences. She loved the Orioles and the Ravens. Queenie loved to travel with her sons and friends: cruising the Caribbean, Atlantic City, Canada, Disney World, Poconos and California. Queenie loved to entertain and cook, but she was not to be rushed in the kitchen. Queenie was an avid dog lover and treated them like children. She also loved to bowl and was a member of the Ball and Chain League at Woodlawn.

As an adult, she was a member of Holy Temple Pentecostal Church where she sang on the choir for many years, until her health prevented her from attending. No one was ever a stranger in Queenie’s presence.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Clifford Ovid; son, Brice W. Boots; grandson, Antonio R. Gasque; brother-in-laws, Francisco D. Ovid (Sharon) and Darrill Ovid of Colombia, South America. Preceding her in death are: her son, Wade R. Gasque; two sisters, Earlene Washington and Naomi Rogers; three brothers, Soloman, David Lee and Richard, Jr. She also leaves: a devoted daughter-in-law, Roberta Miller; devoted niece, Sheila Peguese; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
