

Queen E. Puryear

October 27, 1941 - January 6, 2007

Queen Esther Puryear was born to the late Wyatt and Pauline Goode on October 27, 1941 in Halifax, Virginia. She departed her life on Saturday, January 6, 2007, after enduring a brief illness. Queen graduated from Central High School in Lunenburg County, Virginia. Later she moved to Newark, New Jersey for a brief period; then moved to Baltimore where she resided until her demise. Queen met and married the late William James Puryear; and from this union a son was born, Corey, who also preceded her in death. In 1977, Queen was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses and remained a true servant of Jehovah until her demise. Queen enjoyed working with individuals with disabilities and did so until she retired from Chimes in 2006 due to her illness. Because of her patience, confidence and love for all of mankind-likewise, she was admired and cherished by all. Indeed, Mom was a great spiritual being and longed for "everyone to just get along." Even though she was mild-mannered and quite soft spoken...her words roared like thunder and had an everlasting meaning to all who encountered her. Mom devoted her entire life to raising her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, hoping that one day each would blossom into a "greater" being than she had become. Among those who will continue to cherish fondest memories of her are: three daughters, Cynthia "Sugar," Sheria {David} and Carla {Jared}; six grandchildren, Sheke, Tee-Tee, Mann, Sheme, Reika and Corey {Booda}; four great-grandchildren, Mar Mar, Mya, Niya and Mera; three godsons, Billy, Mookie and Black; daughter-in-law, Noonie. She also leaves to mourn: two sisters, Elizabeth{James} and LaVern{Charles}; brother, Harrison{Debbie}; any many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, inlaws, and a host of devoted friends

“ Dear friends and family, I am so very sorry that you lost your dear loved one in death. Death is truly a devastating enemy that we are all awaiting for Jehovah to destroy forever. It effects our lives like nothing else, and is so heartbreaking. My heart goes out to all of you. Even though I don't know you personally, Queen was my spiriual sister, and I look forward to having the privilege of meeting her in God's new paradise. Keep enduring dear ones in Jehovah's strength, because you know he cares deeply for you. 1st Peter 5,7. And just a little while longer , and we know that death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain will be anymore. The former things will have passed away. Rev21,4. May your cherished memories which death cannot erase; bring joy to your hearts as you await the wonderful ressurection. Take care.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences to you on the loss of your mom. Jehovah God never intended for any of us to lose our family members in death. In fact the Bible calls death our "enemy" and it promises that death will be "destroyed"(1 Corinthians 15:26) There is much hope for our dead loved ones to return to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Revelation 21:3-5) It is up to us the living, to live our lives so we may welcome our loved ones back on earth in a beautiful paradise.(John 17:3 and Luke 23:43) Let us do our utmost.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
