

Queenie E. Pugh

April 5, 1955 - November 22, 2001

Queenie Elizabeth Pugh, daughter of the late Charlie and Rose Pugh, was born on April 5, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland, on November 22, 2001 at 3:50 p.m.; God saw it fit to quietly ease her pain and gently placed her soul into the timelessness of eternity. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She also worked numerous jobs during her adult life in Baltimore. Everyone remembers Queenie by her big smile, loud laugh and always saying, "I love you more." She was always friendly to everyone she knew and will be sincerely missed. She leaves to treasure her memory: her sixteen year companion, lover, best friend and "Boo," Jerome Albert Jacob Clemons and her ten year old precious angel, Whitney Jessica Clemons; an uncle, several aunts, a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Queenie E. Pugh

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Momma, We love and miss you. I saw Whitney yesterday. She is an exact replica of you. She spent Easter with us. Dasha is doing a good job with her. I love and miss you. One glad morning when this life is over, I'll fly away and we'll meet again. I love you Momma.##imported-begin##Risha##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Momma, You are truly missed. I know you're watching over us. You and Cody are living it up in your new home. I love you. You will forever be in my heart. Someday, I'll be coming up to be with you again.##imported-begin##Risha##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept our condolences in this time of great sorrow for you. The love you shared will help sustain you and bring you peace.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM