

Quentin A. Young

April 12, 1948 - February 25, 2026

Quentin Armstead Young was born on April 12, 1948, to the late Beatrice Quillen and Robert Young. He was also lovingly raised by Miss Louise Travis, who preceded him in death. He took his flight to be with the Lord on Wednesday, February 25, 2026, surrounded by his family.

Quentin grew up in Baltimore, Maryland, where he attended the Baltimore City Public School System and received a lifetime degree from University of South Baltimore (aka Southern High School) in 1967.

A dedicated and hardworking man, Quentin built a life of service and craftsmanship. He worked at Baltimore City Parks and Recreation Center, Obrecht Construction Company and later with Shimba Tailoring Shop where he retired in 2011. In every role, he was known for his reliability, and his willingness to lend a helping hand.

Quentin was a faithful member of the historic Ebenezer African Methodist Episcopal Church, in Baltimore, Maryland. Quentin met and married the love of his life Nicole; while attending the Church and they had three children Stacy, Stephanie, and Justin. Quentin was Pop Pop to Kallie, which was his pride and joy.

Quentin had a strong relationship with the Lord. He loved to minister to men and young adults. As a committed member Quentin wore many hats including member of the choir, choir director, Men's Ministry director, the Women's Missionary Society as an associate, Lay Organization and the Security Team (Topflight). He was also a member of The Believers New Teacher Bible Study, under the leadership of his good friend and brother Rev. Craig Lofton.

Known affectionately as "Q" Quentin, had a lifelong passion for music and chicken. He had to have fried chicken at every event. Quentin sang with multiple groups throughout Baltimore, sharing his gift through R&B and gospel. He sang with Jack's Jolly Lads, First-Class, First-Class Review, Heavenly Blessed, Voices of Affirmed Odyssey and 1 Accord. Quentin Young and Keith Matthews were the founding members of 1 Accord. 1 Accord has sung in multiple cities and venues as well as the Appollo Theater in New York City. Quentin's voice, warm and soulful, was a source of comfort and celebration for many.

Quentin loved sports, especially Monday night wrestling, basketball and playing a good game of pinochle. He was known for cheating at spades, always having to win. He really enjoyed both line dancing and hand-dancing. He was a great debater. Quentin also loved to spend time at family gatherings, and hanging out with friends. Quentin served as a little league baseball coach for the Carroll Park Blues Jays and Rays. Boobie as the kids knew him, was always smiling, fun loving and caring. He loved looking good all the time whether casual or dressed. He loved looking sharp. Always coordinated.

Quentin's life was marked by kindness, humor, devotion, and song. He touched the hearts of all who knew him and leaves behind a legacy of love, faith, and family.

Quentin made it home with the Lord and reunited with his siblings: Theodore, Larry, Senora, Sonia, Stephen, Francine and Jessie.

He is survived by his loving family: his devoted wife, Nicole; four children, Natalie, Stacy, Stephanie and Justin; adopted daughter, Dashawn (Anthony); grandchildren, Kallie, Zella and Princeton; Sibling, Maurice (Michele), Rodney, Denise (Tony), Lamont, Cheryl (Mark), Emmanuel (Cynthia), Dana (Veronica), Gilbert (Celeste) and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. 1 special lifetime friend Gary Stubbs.

Previous Events

Public Viewing

MAR 13. 4:00 PM - 7:00 PM (ET)

March Funeral Homes - West Baltimore
4300 Wabash Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21215
(410) 542-2400
info@marchfh.com

Wake

MAR 14. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

Ebenezer A.M.E Church
20 W. Montgomery St.
Baltimore, MD 21230

Funeral Service

MAR 14. 11:00 AM (ET)

Ebenezer A.M.E Church
20 W. Montgomery St.
Baltimore, MD 21230

Tribute Wall

JA

“ Jonathan Artis purchased the Simply Elegant Sp athiphyllum for the family of Quentin A. Young.

---

Jonathan Artis - March 11 at 08:13 PM

JA

“ Jonathan Artis planted a Memorial Tree in honor of Quentin A. Young.

---

Jonathan Artis - March 11 at 08:13 PM

CP

“ My condolences to the family and Ebenezer AME. I recall seeing
Mr. Young singing on the choir during our union holy week.

---

C Pitts - March 11 at 03:31 PM

“ Peaceful White Lilies Basket was purchased for the family of Quentin A. Young.

---

March 11 at 03:28 PM

LC

“ Love Louisa Castillo purchased the Beautiful in Blue for the family of Quentin A. Young.

Love Louisa Castillo - March 10 at 09:25 PM

BF

“ You will forever be the Patriarch of our family, we love you, Uncle Quentin.

Bree Ford - March 09 at 08:52 PM

SY

“ We love you Uncle Quentin and miss you so much ❤️

Sonia Young - March 09 at 08:44 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

---

March Funeral Homes - March 04 at 04:41 PM