

Quentrell Yarborough

July 20, 2012 - December 10, 2022

Quentrell Eugene Yarborough was born on July 20, 2012, and gained his wings on December 10, 2022.

Quentrell touched many lives during his brief time here on earth. His loving spirit will be forever missed. Quentrell was a very determined, stubborn, funny, energetic, and a very loving child.

Quentrell was his own person. He did whatever it was that he liked to do. Most of the time he was the happiest when a Game System would come on. BOY!!! Did he love the game?

Quentrell leaves his cherishing moments to his mother, Shakeira; sister, A'ziva Yarborough; grandparents, Gregory Cooper, Apache Ross, Michelle Smith, and Russell Yarborough; aunts and uncles, Kendall, Eric, Kenard Cloclough as well as Amanda, Damien, Russell Yarborough; and a host of family and friends.

To meet him with open arms and a controller in his hand is his father, Quentin Yarborough, NOW that is one relationship that was very special. They were the light to each other's world and to meet again I know they are happy and safely watching over all of us.
