

Quincie Ann Banks

August 22, 1953 - November 23, 2005

On August 22, 1953 QUINCIE ANN BANKS was born to the parents of William and Annie Lee Banks. She's the youngest of two siblings, who were closer than life itself. Quincie also attended Richmond Public Schools and received her certification for Nursing Assistant through the John Hopkins University Hospital Program in Baltimore, MD. She was an employee of Medical College of VA for 14 years as a sterile technician. For the past 5 years, she was an employee of Real Assets Management. Quincie was an avid lover of dancing with a passion for animals. Her gift was that of a true servant. She loved to encourage and help everyone she met. Quincie's desire was to help provide a shelter for homeless women and children. Quincie was a faithful member of St. Paul's Baptist Church for eighteen years. She rededicated her life to the Lord in 1997. She also belong to the Women of Purpose Outreach Ministry. On November 17, 2005 she suddenly became ill and on November 21, 2005 Quincie departed and went to be with Lord. She is survived by her father, Eugene Mosby; a loving and devoted daughter, Wilhelmina Dabney (Louis); one son who she often called her miracle baby boy, Sean Banks-Lewis; one sister, Evangelist Willnette Galloway (Roderick); two grandchildren, Nicholas and Nathan Dabney; five aunts, Alice McClary (Aunt Tiny), Christine Yates, Dorothy Nance, Odeather Brown (Leroy), Elizabeth Quarles; two uncles, Frank Tunstall (Glenda), James Tunstall (Nina); one niece, Carmene Greene; one nephew, Michael Wyatt (Mia); one great niece, Taylor Wyatt; one great nephew, Rashad Pinkston; a host of other relatives and friends among them two devoted friends, Everett Spindle and Bertha Green.

Tribute Wall

“ Quincie Ann Banks

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Quincie Ann Banks

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I wish to express my condolences to the family of Ms. Banks. I would like to share with you a comforting scripture found at Revelation 21:4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, & death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Our Heavenly Father will do away with the pangs of death very soon. May these words strengthen you in your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Debbie Spann##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My family and I offer our sincere sympathy to the family and friends of Ms. Banks. When we have been faced with the loss of ones we love, we have found comfort in the resurrection hope promised at Acts 24:15. May this also be a source of comfort for you.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am sorry for the lost of your mother, friend, sister, and daughter. Death was not apart of God's original arrangement. I hope that your family can find comfort in Isaiah 25:8,9. This wonderful hope will soon be a reality by means of God's Kingdom.##imported-begin##K. D. Smith##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Family I wanted to take this time to express my condolences on the loss of your loved one. I wanted to let you know that the Bible offers hope and comfort at times like this. The scriptures tells us that God is a God of Comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 & Isaiah 66:13). They also tell us that he sees our plight is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves, Psalm 34:18. There is also hope of seeing our dead loved ones again in a different world free from all the stresses of this world. A world where there are no crimes, sickness, death, poverty, etc. These promises can be found at scriptures such as Psalm, 37:10, 11; Revelation 21:3, 4; John 5:28, 29; Isaiah 26:19; Hosea 13:14. There are plenty of other scriptures but time will not permit me to give them all to you. The next time Jehovah's Witnesses knock on your door please if you ask them they will be more than happy to give you more comfort from the scriptures. Please take the time to read the scriptures mentioned and draw comfort from them whenever you feel the need. Please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that God "is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalms 34:18)##imported-begin##Sophia##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Saddly death touches every family sooner or later. It's a sad part of life as it is now. Saddly it recently touched your family when you lost your dear loved one. Did you know though that soon God is going to get rid of death and sorrow. At Rev 20:13 it says, " And the sea gave up those dead in it. And death and Hades gave up those dead in them. So in every place where people have died, even in the sea God remembers them, and will bring them back to life. I hope this comforts you to know that one day you will see your loved one again. My prayers are with you. Take care.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM