

Quincy A. Lee III

March 2, 1969 - June 11, 2018

"Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, Love leaves a memory no one can steal."

Quincy aka "Ismael" Alexander Lee III, was born to Robersonia Atkins and Quincy Alexander Lee, Jr. on March 2, 1969 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on June 11, 2018.

Quincy received his education from Baltimore City Public Schools, Coppin State University, and subsequently attended and graduated from All-State Career School in 2012. Upon obtaining his CDL License, he became a full-time Commercial Driver for American Red Cross, and most recently, Maryland Transit Administration as a Professional Bus Operator. Quincy truly enjoyed his job and the people he worked with. His Supervisor described him as incredibly dependable, hardworking, and reliable.

August 15, 2012, Quincy married the former Lattice Powell and out of this union two children were born, Quincy IV and Aaris.

Quincy made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man. He prided himself on living and serving as a Muslim for over 20 years.

Quincy was pre-deceased in life by his two infant children, Quincy IV and Aaris Lee.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Latice Lee; stepson, Tyrell; mother, Robersonia and father, Quincy Jr.; sisters, Quinetta, Wendy, and Bernadette; brothers, Alan, Tony, and Dwyone; mother-in-law, father-in-law, four brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, and many other relatives and friends.

“ Q, your friendly personality and smile will be missed by our family, I used to peek to see if you were driving any of the buses passing by me and wait for the talks and laughs we shared while we both waited for our buses to head home.
