

Quinton Lee Croomer

December 16, 1958 - March 1, 2008

A Time To Grow QUINTON LEE CROOMER, son of Mary J. Vaughan, was born on December 16, 1958 at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Quinton was very energetic in his youth and was an excellent football and baseball player. He was known for his fast reflections in running and catching a football and baseball. He never grew tired of having fun and playing even though he was born asthmatic which hampered his physical abilities.

A Time To Learn Quinton enjoyed school and received the majority of his education in the Baltimore City Public School System completing the tenth grade at Baltimore City College. Later he had the desire to obtain a GED to help him seek better employment opportunities.

A Time To Work Quinton started and had a few jobs in the janitorial field, but was mainly employed with the Pest Control Division for Baltimore City. He was very conscientious about his position relating to pest control and if you had pests in or around your home he was the person to call. In his later years he enjoyed performing odds jobs for his attorney and good friend Warren Brown. He also would do the same for his family and the neighbors in the community always performing any job to the best of his abilities.

A Time To Reflect Quinton often known to his family and close friends as "Q" or "Croomer " was a devoted son to his mother " Mary" with a firm bond that tested a relationship between mother and son. He did not have the opportunity to pursue marriage; however he enjoyed fatherhood when God blessed him with his daughter Quiana Croomer. He blessed him with a firm acclamation the "Quiana, my daughter is my heart."

He also was a very proud grandfather to his three grandchildren Tyshaun, MyKalah and new arrival Michael. He loved playing with them and entertaining them whenever they visited. "Q" was good with his mind and hands and had the talent of helping people in order to get things accomplished. He did not have a problem with ever making friends and had a good sense of humor. His hobbies included watching movies and sports on ESPN, especially his favorite football team the Dallas Cowboys and basketball team the Los Angeles Lakers.

“ To the family. I would like to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. At times like these it may seem very hard to find comfort at the present, but "the God of all comfort, comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And His Word tells us at John 5:28, 29, "not to marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memeorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." So just think, according to God's Word, very soon all who have fallen asleep in death will live again; right here on earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) What wonderful time to look forward to.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
