

Rachel Bunn

October 15, 1928 - January 24, 2002

God decided it was time to call home one of His children. On Thursday morning, January 24, 2002, one of His Angels came to take Rachel to a new home where there is no death, pain or sorrow- Just Peace. Rachel Bunn, daughter of the late Sarah and James Roberson, and the eighth of nine children, was born on October 15, 1928 in Rocky Mount, North Carolina. On January 24, 2002, she departed this life peacefully in her sleep after a long illness. She was educated at Rocky Mount's Nash County High School. At an early age she gave her life to Christ and became a member of Bethlehem Baptist Church also in North Carolina. In November of 1946, she married Elias Bunn Jr., and from this union they had three sons Alvin, Kenneth and Phillip Bunn. In 1950, they moved to Patapsco Park, in Anne Arundel County, Maryland. In 1952, she joined Community Baptist Church and remained a member there even to this day. She was a member of The Usher Board, and also a Crossing Guard for Anne Arundel County. She enjoyed having her family around, cooking, sewing and most of all she loved working in the yard cutting, and pruning, moving or planting flowers. She always had a smile on her face every time you would see her. Rachel leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted husband of 55 years, Elias Bunn, Jr.; three sons, Alvin, Kenneth and Phillip of Baltimore; two sisters, Mattie Harrison of Washington, D.C., and Erma Jean Stokes of North Carolina; four sisters-in-law, Essie Bunn, Dorothy Bunn, Elizabeth Bunn and Algia Lean Roberson of Hollister, North Carolina; three brothers-in-law, Frank Bond, Sr., Robert Bunn, and Charles Redd of Baltimore; one daughter-in-law, Debra Bunn; one step-grandson, Karl White of Arkansas; many nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends. WHAT CAN WE SAY There's a place that's empty in our hearts That will never be the same Words cannot say how much we will miss you The love we have is so dear. Trying to keep you, Yes, still here We will keep your memory yet alive Because it's hard to say goodbye We love you, but god loves you best So sleep now and take your rest.

Tribute Wall

“ Rachel Bunn

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept our heartfelt sympathy in your time of great sorrow. Only those who have lost a loved one can know the depths of your feelings. We hope our caring will make your sorrow easier to bear. Sincerely, The March Family and Staff##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to extend my heartfelt appreciation for allowing me to inform and minister to the family in your hour of breavement. My prayer is that God continues to build up, where you may be torn down. May God bless and heaven continue to smile upon your family.##imported-begin##Rebecca E. Rose, LFD##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Uncle Buddy, Alvin, Kenneth, & Anthony: We are deeply saddened by your loss, a great loss that extends far beyond the immediate family. Aunt Rachel was a wonderful person. In many quiet, understated ways, she was always kind, generous, and energetic. Indeed, she was a model wife, mother, aunt, in-law, and community participant--first and foremost through her lifelong activities in the Church. Furthermore, despite her many sterling qualities, she was never one to "toot her own horn," as the saying goes. As I see it, there is no such thing as "closure" to tragic events, such as the passing of a loved one. While there are, however, many versions of what we constitute as truths or truth-claims, the only lasting truth is remembrance. It is through remembrance, not closure, that we will always carry Aunt Rachel in our hearts. Our thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of great sorrow. Sincerely,
Carroll##imported-begin##Joseph Carroll Dorsey##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM