“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow. Know that the God of comfort is with you during this time of tribulation (2 Cor. 1:3,4). Also, the Bible has words of comfort at 1 Corinthians 15:26 which states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God promises to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, My family finds much comfort and solace from the Bible's loving promises. This is what I want to share with you. First Corinthians 15:26 informs us that death is our enemy that will be done away with. There is hope for our dead loved ones because Acts 24:15 tells us- "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength as you reflect on these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. May you find comfort now and in the days to come from God who has promised, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people..." Isaiah 66:13.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Grantley-Hunter. No doubt losing a love one in death is painful and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. However, Christ Jesus taught that someday "all those in their memorial tombs" will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29) Yes, it is truly heartwarming to learn that Almighty God Jehovah and his son Jesus yearns to bring our dead love ones back to life. May this too be a source of strength and encouragement to you.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##
