

Rachel Strong

July 6, 1928 - September 15, 2010

RACHEL B. STRONG, youngest of fourteen children and daughter of the late William Buchanan and Elizabeth Evans-Buchanan, was born on July 6, 1928 in Richland County, South Carolina. Rachel B. Strong departed this life on September 15, 2010 and immediately laid hold to eternal life.

Rachel B. Strong received her public education in South Carolina, New York City and graduated from Public High School in Washington, D. C. On July 9, 1999 she received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Human and Social Resources from Sojourner Douglas College.

Rachel B. Strong was legally married twice. Both husbands are deceased.

Rachel B. Strong worked a variety of jobs during her lifetime. As a young woman, she worked as a LP Nurse in South Carolina, worked as a Cook in the Public School System in South Carolina and also worked as a Cook in the White House Offices in Washington, D.C. Later in life, she worked briefly as a Head Start Teacher in Baltimore City. She enjoyed her long employment in Baltimore City as a Cook/Housekeeper the most.

Rachel Buchanan was a lifetime member of God's Church of the Apostle Doctrine of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. In 1987 Rachel Buchanan was awarded a Gold Certificate of Appreciation of Outstanding Service and contributions by the Church Leader. Rachel was baptized early in life in South Carolina. She was anchored in Jesus and openly confessed with her mouth Jesus as her Lord and Savior.

Rachel B. Strong leaves to mourn: her two daughters, Rev. Delores Buchanan and Rachel E. Hopson; granddaughter, Amber N. Knight; grandson, Zachary Barksdale; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, in-law and friends.

Hallelujah!

“ Please accept my sympathy for the loss of your der loved one. Even though this is a difficult time, you can find much comfort in the Christian hope of the resurrection. The Scripture at Acts 24:15 promises: " and I have hope toward God, which hope these men themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." The Bible promises that our loves that have passed away will live again. What a wonderful hope made possible by the Son, Jesus Christ.
