

Racilia Jones Campbell

August 8, 1940 - October 30, 2009

On Friday, October 30, 2009, our beloved Racilia Jones Campbell, Ceil, as she was called, departed this life. She confessed Jesus Christ and shared His love with many. She had a heart for the seniors and making sure that their needs were met. She was a dedicated Church Mother as Disciples Harvest Covenant Ministries and a member of the Senior Refiners at St. Paul's Baptist Church. She was a retired Philip Morris USA employee. Racilia was known by her childhood friends as "The Big Wheel". She graduated from Armstrong High School in 1959. Among her many activities she was a majorette. She also taught hair techniques at Apex Beauty School and had many students who loved and adored her. She was a member of the Golden Gang, the local AARP, Philip Morris Retirees Club and the prior Amontalodos. She enjoyed life and that joy was felt by all who was ever in her company. Her greatest enjoyment was interior decorating and shopping. She was preceded in death by her husband, Lewis Campbell and parents, Edith B. Epps and Reuben Jones. She leaves to cherish her loving memory her loving daughter, Tracie Morgan (John) and son, Derric Howard; one sister, Catherine Hubbard; two brothers, Ryland and Terrance (Tammie) Jones; grandchildren, So-Tay Allen, William Allen, Breon Braxton, Diamond Allen, Porsha Allen, Arve' Morgan, Jayla Harris, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. She had too many close friends too numerous to name, but all loved the same. She was a true example of "Love thy neighbor".

“ I offer my sympathy to the family and friends of Racilia Jones Campbell. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you continue to rely and find comfort in reading the Bible.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##
