

Radcliff O. Haynes

April 2, 1962 - April 15, 2014

RADCLIFFE O. HAYNES, the son of George and Sylvia Haynes, and grandson of the late Ralph and Ethel Henry, was born on April 2, 1962 in Gregory Park, St. Catherine, Jamaica. To his family and close friends, he was known as “Cliff or Daddy Axe”. Cliff quietly slept into eternal rest on Tuesday, April 15, 2014.

Cliff was educated in the Baltimore City Public school System and graduated from Carver Vocational Technical High School. In June of 1989, he began his career in the music industry and built his own Deejay Sound System and named the system “Daddy Axe Sound”. Cliff’s music touched many lives within the Jamaican community. People who worked with him knew that he was committed to having one of the best sound systems in Baltimore along with the best DJ selectors.

It was June 6, 1998 that Cliff and Sharon Annie Green were united in holy matrimony. They were blessed with four children: Natasha, Tamika, Radcliffe Jr., and Elon.

Cliff was a friendly, outgoing person who loved to travel and knew how to enjoy life. You never had to ask Cliff twice to go anywhere. Life was always an adventure, and Cliff was always excited and prepared for that adventure. Therefore, in 1998, he and the family relocated to Atlanta, Georgia. While in Atlanta, he worked as an independent subcontractor for the cable company AT&T.

Cliff had an upbeat and cheerful personality. On any given Saturday, you can find Cliff watching those old "Bruce Lee" or other types of karate movies. Cliff was also kind and compassionate and developed many lasting friendships. He will be truly missed by all who have had the opportunity to know him.

May his soul rest in peace.

Cliff leaves to celebrate and to cherish his memory: his wife Sharon Green-Haynes; children, Natasha, Tamika, Radcliffe Jr., and Elon; mother, Sylvia Haynes; father, George Haynes; grandchildren, Angel Smith, Anashia Baker and Kinley Ringgold; nine sisters, four brothers, cousins, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, and a host of extended relatives and family.
