

Ralph D. Bailey Jr.

January 30, 1956 - April 30, 2015

RALPH DUCKETT BAILEY , JR., son of the late Ralph Duckett Bailey, Sr. and the late Clara M. Jones, was born on January 30, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on April 20, 2015.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He graduated from Southern High School in Baltimore in 1974. The same year, he joined the U.S. Army and was stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina. He was honorably discharged in 1976.

Ralph held various positions after leaving the military. The job he enjoyed most was as a supervisor for Baltimore City Youth Program.

Ralph (a.k.a. "Flubby") was a kind and gentle person who liked people, and was well liked by many. He was an avid reader and a sports fanatic. He also had a great sense of humor, and likes to dance. His favorite artist was Chaka Khan.

He fathered two children: Tiffany S. Bailey (deceased), and is survived by Ralph D. Bailey, III.

Ralph leaves to mourn: son, Ralph D. Bailey, III; a special friend, Charlotte Shorts; two sisters, Bronte I. Bailey and Kendra M. Johnson; a brother-in-law, Latrell Johnson; six grandchildren, Davonna Bailey, Tiffany Bailey, Quanshae Bailey, Dayshawn Bailey, Shyquan Bailey, and Shyheem Bailey; two nephews, Rashard Queen and Blake Johnson; four great-grandchildren, aunts, uncles, a host of cousins and friends.
