

Ralph Jerome Jackson

March 8, 1949 - January 22, 2007

Ralph Jerome Jackson (b.k.a. “Bill” or “Billy”), son of the late James Jerome and Shortens Lucille Jackson, was born on March 8, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on January 22, 2007. Christen as an infant at Ames Memorial Methodist Church, he united and baptized at the New Shiloh Baptist Church in 1974. Ralph received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He attended and received certification in automotive technology at Lincoln Technical Institute. At an early age he enlisted into the United States Army and reached the level of Specialist 5 and furthered his skills as a master mechanic, teaching others automotive skills. A Vietnam War Veteran he received many awards and commendations. At the time of his death, he worked for Baltimore City as a master truck mechanic. He married Mechonne Anita Hatcher in 1987. They shared more than twenty-five years of unconditional love. He was an avid traveler and theater goer. In his leisure time he loved listening to jazz. Ralph was a favorite uncle to his nephews and nieces; he was an excellent role model. Ralph was large in stature and gentle at heart. Ralph is survived by: his wife, Mechonne; daughter, Jermaine Ford; son, Johnathan Jackson and his wife, Lateia; seven grandchildren, Angela, Shanice, Anisa, Davins, Johnathan Jr.; Jermaine and Jabarre; two sisters, Mrs. Yvonne Hamilton and Ms. Hortense McKnight; brother, James Jackson; two brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Ralph Jerome Jackson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible gives us the loving prospect of our dead loved ones returning to life in a peaceful new world with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Revelation 21:3-5,Matthew 5:5,Psalm 37:29 and Luke 23:43) Acts 24:15 says- "And I have hope toward God...that there is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much solace as you think about these loving promises found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My most heartfelt condolences to the family of Mr. Jackson. I am so sorry for your loss. Down through the ages people have lost their loved ones in death, and it's a very painful reality for us all. Did God mean for things to be this way? To find out how he feels about death, we must go to the true and only source for answers. 1st Cor. 15:26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Also Isaiah 25'8 tells us that Jehovah God will swallow up death forever. So our loving father does promise a permanent end to death and the sorrow it causes. What about those who have already died? Daniel 12:2 tells us, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of the dust who will wake up. Also the Apostle Paul wrote, "And I have hope towards God there there is going to be a ressurection. So by means of this promised ressurection, many will live again. Jesus demonstrated this by ressurecting many back to life while he was here on earth. Mark 5:38-43, and John 11:38-42, are recordings of two such events. I know words sometimes cannot take away the pain you're going through at this time, but may the wonderful hope of seeing your loved one again bring you some comfort, as well as the heartfelt prayers in your behalf, and your precious memories of your loved one. Remember too, that Jehovah God is a fullfiller of his promises. His word never fails. Isaiah 55:11.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hello ! I would like to take this time to send a few words of uplifting thoughts from our heavenly father in the bible. We can be comforted in our tribulations as 2 Cor. 1:3 say. The time is coming when no one will ever die again as Rev.21:5 says " All things will be made New" I am looking forward to that coming as our creator has said. May all the promises of Jehovah God strenghten your hearts til the time comes when deathill be no more. May all the cherished memories of Mr. Ralph stay close. Sincerely, Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM