“ To the Family and Friends , I would like to express my deepest sympathy on the loss of your loved one. At a time like this, the pain and sorrow that is felt cannot be explained. The hurt feels like it will never go away. We have all lost a loved one and a few comforting words mean a lot to us. I hope you can find comfort from these words found in God's word the Bible. At Rev.21:3,4, Jehovah assures us this: "God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death ill be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. What a wonderful hope we have and all we have to do is to follow what John 17:3 says. "This means everlasting life, their taking in knowledge of you, the only true God, and of the one whom you sent forth, Jesus Christ". One day in the near future, we will see our loved ones again.

“ Dear Family and Friends,

It is understood that the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable when you lose a loved one. During these times, you can find comfort in God’s Word. The Bible helps us to understand how Jehovah and Jesus feel about death. Jehovah promised that “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.”—Revelation 21:4 Jesus said that “all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out.” (John 5:28, 29) People who are to be restored to life right here on earth will be reunited with their loved ones. The dead will not be raised to life in a world filled with war, crime, and sickness, because God’s purpose is that the whole earth be made into a paradise. They will have an opportunity to live forever on this earth in peaceful and happy conditions. What a loving God and such a wonderful hope for you and your loved one.

Sincerely,

A Bible Student

“ To the Family and Friends of Ralph Allen Millard,

I know this is a rough patch in your life at this time and I can definitely relate to how you are feeling at this time. When my grandmother died in 07 I was in much pain but what helped me to get through was my host of family and friends and Jehovah God. You take comfort in knowing that your loved one is no longer suffering, no longer hurting whether it be physical or emotional, no longer living life in this crazy world. That in itself should give us reason for joy but naturally we can't help but to feel such hurt and pain. However, we have a hope that God has set before us. It is a hope that we can have complete faith and confidence in. At Isaiah 25:8 we read, " He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he wil take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken it." It is definitely comforting to know that one day death will be a thing of the past and we will never ever have to contend with the enemy death again. Your family is definitely in my prayers.

“ I am writing a Tribute to my Father, RALPH ALLEN MILLARD, SR. The words expressed here cannot fully describe what you mean to me Father Dear! Your love, support, guidance, discipline and faith, will remain with me always! Your dedication to your Nation, while serving as a New York National Guardsmen, as a Military Police (MP) Officer, as well as, your dedication to the City of New York and the New York Police Department (NYPD), also as a Police Officer, is clearly evident. You have always looked out for my best interest, by calling and checking on me, especially, during my service on active duty with the United States Army, as a US Army Attorney, and always praying for me and giving me sage "military advice" as I have been stationed far away from you and Mom (Mumsy), For that I shall be eternally grateful. I know that you shall be watching over me throughout the rest of my days. I am sorry that you will never be able to walk me down the aisle one day at my wedding, but I shall always know that you will be with me, marching with me, holding my hand, telling me to "move out smartly", keep my head up, march with a full "30 inch step" and to smile. You always told me that I am never alone and that you are always there. You took me to Walt Disney World when I was only 2 1/2 years old and to this day, that is my most favorite vacation destination in the world. nobody but me understood the significance of what first trip meant to me and why i love going to Disney! Thank you Father Dear for your strong influence in my Life's Journey. I hope that you are at peace with our Heavenly Father. As your daughter, that still holds the name of Millard, I shall always remember our times together, our jokes, your laughter and your smile! I have only one Father Dear, and I shall honor you for all times, SIR! Thank you for being my DADDY! I LOVE YOU, ALWAYS FATHER DEAR, XOXOXOXO MAJOR TRACEE YVETTE MILLARD, ESQUIRE, UNITED STATES ARMY ATTORNEY
