

Ralph C Thompson

January 15, 1947 - March 28, 2025

RALPH CHARLES THOMPSON, beloved son of Ulysses and Erma Thompson, was born on January 15, 1947 in Baltimore, MD. He departed this life on Friday, March 28, 2025. He was baptized at an early age and continued his spiritual journey at Wayland Baptist Church as a member of the usher board. He later joined Sharon Baptist Church in 1992 and served as a deacon.

He attended Baltimore City Public Schools and was employed by Crownsville State Hospital for many years until he retired. He also worked in maintenance at Social Security.

On November 14, 1992, he married the love of his life, Evelyn. Ralph was a devoted husband and jokester. He enjoyed making people laugh. He was always willing to go the extra mile for family and friends. He loved to dance and had a passion for old school music and doing crossword puzzles. Ralph was a sports fanatic. His favorite football player was Lamar Jackson with the Baltimore Ravens and his favorite basketball player was Michael Jordan. "Uncle Ralph," as he was affectionately called, loved going to cookouts, family reunions and going to his nephew and niece's beach house.

Ralph was preceded in death by his father Ulysses Thompson, mother Erma Thompson, brother Dennis (Brenda) Thompson, and sister Sandra (Michael)

Edmondson. He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Evelyn Thompson; son, Rodney Quick; grandson, Noah Searles; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
