TA

My name is Tara and I wanted to share my deepest sympathy to the family & friends of Mr. Ralph Williams. After the death of a loved one, you might be confronted with a number of overwhelming emotions, including shock, numbness, sadness, and perhaps anger. Psalms 34:18 tells us that "Jehovah is near those that are broken at heart." Psalms 55:22 says "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous one to totter." Jesus himself told Martha, after Lazarus death " Your brother will rise." found in John 11:23. Paul stated in Acts 24:15 " I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. No doubt thinking about the Bible based hope of a resurrection can be the greatest comfort while grieving the loss of a loved one. Always remember the words found at James 4:8 " Draw close to God, and he will draw close to you.

*To The family of Ralph Williams:
When someone dies that has a great impact on the living in general, however when a loved one dies that can be traumatic. The reality of it all becomes ever so real because it's not general any longer but personal especially if your tie with the deceased was closer than ever. In instances such as that dealing with death can be mentally and emotionally paralyzing, not knowing what to say or knowing what to do or know you must keep living yourself. Death can have such an effect. The bible says God is a God of love, yet many fault God with many who have died. However always remember James 1:13 in brief states with evil things God cannot be tried nor does He try anyone. So take heart because Jehovah God has promised He will do away with death. Rev 21: 4 and His son Jesus will resurrect the dead. John 5:28-29 and Ralph will be a part of that blessing. Yes, Is 26:19 says the dead will live again. Throughout all bible prophecies they have all come to pass and just as Jehovah says His word will not return without results (Is 55:11) so this too will come to be. John 17:17 says God's word is truth and Heb 6:18 assures us that it is impossible for God to lie. Jehovah is very much aware of your pain and suffering. As Ps 34: 18 states Jehovah is near to those who are broken at heart. Such a tender thought in regards to our Heavenly Father. May the God of all comfort continue to comfort you.*
