She was always there to help Mom. "Mommy works hard, so we should too," she would always say. She was a very intelligent woman, she had several jobs that led to supervisory positions within two to three months. In between

Four years later, Lawrence Anderson Jr. was born in March of 2000. In January 2002, they were blessed with their second child, Armonni Anderson.

In July of 2006, she married longtime friend Dennis Gilmore, and they shared eight years together.
