

Ramone Deloatch

January 14, 1951 - October 14, 2006

Ramone Deloatch, son of the late Raymond Deloatch and Beatrice Smallwood Andrews Deloatch, was sent down from heaven on January 14, 1951, and has returned to be with the Lord on October 14, 2006 after a lengthy illness. "Frank", as his family affectionately knew him, was born in Baltimore City. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Fairmount Hill Senior High School in 1969. Ramone proudly served his country, from 1969 until his Honorable Discharge in 1972, with the United States Army, as an E-5 Sergeant. After his honorable discharge from the Army, he went on to work to Virginia to work at the Commonwealth of Virginia Department of Corrections. Ramone believed in sharing his love for his people through the many pranks and jokes that he played, and what a joker he was! In the memory of Ramone we the family would like to thank everyone in The N.A. (Narcotics Anonymous) Fellowship for their support, thoughts and prayers. Ramone leaves to cherish his memory: four children, his devoted eldest son Marcus D. Baker, Ramone, "Abe" Deloatch, Kimberly Willis and April Harris; three grandchildren, Dontae, Dymon and Aleera; one godson Daquan Clark, seven sisters, Emma, Geraldine (which proceeded him in death), Lolita, Dionne and Romaine; one brother-in-law Wayne Morsell, four brothers, William, Clyde, Phillip and Vernon; and a host of other living relatives and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Deloatch. No doubt losing a love one in death is painful and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. However, Christ Jesus taught that someday "all those in the memorial tombs" will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29) Yes, it is truly heartwarming to know that Almighty God Jehovah and his son Jesus yearns to bring our dead love ones back to life. May this too be a source of encouragement to you.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“Ramone was like the big brother that I never had. We had fun times in the Paca house, Whenever I needed something he was always right there lending a helping hand. He was a very good and kindhearted person, I never really called him by his legal government name because he was always known as OG to me. I will miss him greatly and am saddened that he is no longer here but he is in heaven now watching over me and I will have it no other way.##imported-begin##Kacy Brandon##imported-end##

“Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
