

Randall Edward Hicks

December 19, 1956 - May 18, 2009

Our beloved Randall Edward Hicks, 52, the second son of nine siblings born December 19, 1956 to Ella M. and Major Hicks, Sr. in Richmond, Virginia. He entered into the arms of our heavenly Father who created heaven and earth on May 18, 2009. He was a graduate of Maggie Walker High School and a former student of Virginia Commonwealth University, studying sociology. Randall accepted Christ at an early age. Employed twelve years by the Richmond City Department of Social Services as a Case Manager in the Supportive Housing program. Randall enjoyed his job and meeting different people daily and addressing the needs of the numerous homeless individuals in the community. He was well known throughout the Richmond Tri-City area as a man who was very instrumental in the needs of the people. Randall was kind-hearted, giving, fun, yet stern with a good sense of humor. He was a very friendly person and befriended many. One magnificent quality he possessed was his compassion in helping others in need. Randall was also a caring and thoughtful person who had a big heart and will be deeply missed by all who knew and worked with him, including the service providers and the clients he worked so hard to help. Although he is no longer with us, his legacy within our community will remain. He never complained about life or what it held. The lessons and morals he taught his family, which he lived day-to-day, will forever be a goal his family strives to reach. Randall's memories will be dear to the hearts of his family: loving and devoted mother, Ella Hicks; father, Major Hicks, Sr.; devoted daddy, Willie Lee Taylor; three sisters, Renee

Hicks, Cassandra Davis and Fern Hicks, six brothers, Major Hicks, Jr., Anthony Hicks (Joyce), David Hicks, Gregory Hicks (Bridgette) and Alvin Hicks (Tracey); step-brother, Bryan Hicks; devoted god-parents, Doris and Gregory Kinley; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many good friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians chapter 15, verse 26 lovingly informs us that our cruel "enemy death" is to be destroyed. Also, Acts 24:15 declares "That there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this loving resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for that hope: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to the time when mourning will be a thing of the past because 1Cor15:26 talks about a time when "the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing". Continue to draw close to the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will give you the strength to get through.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ May I extend fellow feeling to you all. Sadness fill our hearts when we lost a dear love one, however Joy comes when we know our heavenly father is there with comfort , 2 Cor.1 :4 says and he cares 1 Peter 5 :7. From the remarks about Mr. Randall, he was a very caring and giving person person and that reminds us of Jesus Christ when he was on the earth healing and helping so many persons. In the near future we can look forward to the earth becoming a Paradise free from sickness, pain, death foever, Ps.145:16. I am so looking forward to that and I know you all are too. May all the many accomplishment and cherish memories with Mr. Randall help on the journey of life.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
