

Reverend Randolph Brown

September 18, 1934 - July 30, 2011

REVEREND RANDOLPH BROWN, son of the late Claude Brown and Lossie Kenlaw was born on September 18, 1934 in Washington, North Carolina. He transitioned from earth to glory peacefully on Saturday, July 30, 2011 after a lengthy illness.

Randolph received his education in the public schools of North Carolina. Randolph and his family relocated to Baltimore, Maryland. From a very young age, Randolph was often found in the shed by his home doing what he loved most, preaching and singing to the church (which was his sisters and brothers). Later his family jointed First Mount Olive Freewill Baptist Church under the leadership and founder Bishop Leo Caesar. He was a lifelong member of First Mount Olive Freewill Baptist Church.

He was retired from the Cleaners Hanger Company.

In 1961 Randolph met and married the former Curley Lee Barnes, and from this union there are eight children (six daughters and two sons).

Randolph made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend.

Reverend Randolph was preceded in death by one sister; Pearline Jenkins-

Smith and two brothers, Willie Lee Brown and Leander Brown. He leaves to cherish fondest memories: his former wife, Curley; six daughters, Brenda (Joseph) Epps, Linda Brown, Louise (Ronald) Carpenter, Rosalind (Lester) Wilson, Kathleen (Deric) Ford and Christine Brown; two sons, Ronald Brown and Douglas (Keisha) Brown; thirty-two grandchildren; fifteen great-grandchildren; two sister, Louise (Howard) Spinney and Barbara Kenlaw; one brother-in-law, a special Caregiver, Nicole Rose; nieces, nephews, host of other relatives and close friends, and the First Mount Olive Freewill Church Family.
