

Randolph Jackson

July 28, 1954 - February 21, 2004

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith”- II Timothy 4:7 On Saturday, February 21, 2004, Randolph Jackson peacefully departed this life after a lengthy illness. Randolph Jackson was born on July 28, 1954 in Darlington, South Carolina. He was the son of Mary and the late Charles Jackson, Sr. “Randy,” as he was affectionately called, was the youngest of eight children (his oldest brother and sister, Charles and Dorothy preceded him in death). Randy came to Baltimore, Maryland at a very young age and was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was a humble person and loved God and his family. He was a very quiet person who loved to read and listen to music. He enjoyed attending concerts with his companion, Joyce. Randy was employed for twenty-nine years in the food industry in produce. He enjoyed working with the public until his health began to fail. He was always courteous and respectful and had a special concern for the elderly. He found joy in raising flowers and working in the garden. He will be truly missed by all that knew and loved him. He leaves to cherish his love and rejoice in his deliverance from pain and suffering: a loving and devoted mother, Mary; five brothers and sisters, Isiah, Charlie, Margaret, Patricia and Mattie; five uncles, Oliver McRavin, Thomas McRavin, Hammond Becote, Jimmy Wade of Darlington, South Carolina, and James Alford of Brooklyn, New York; nine aunts, Ruby McRavin, Ethel Reeves, Blanche Becote, Mattie Becote, Dora Wade of Darlington, South Carolina, Annie Exum of Bloomfield, Connecticut, Bernice James of Brooklyn, New York, Josephine

McRavin of Washington, D.C., and Mary Hairston of Syracuse, New York; his devoted companion, Joyce Owens; two grandchildren, Theresa and Teonna Owens; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ To the Jackson Family, Please accept my condolence on the passing of Mr. Jackson. I am sure he was loved and will be missed by you all. Please take comfort that Almighty God has a book of remembrance (Malachi 3:16) and soon he will open up that book and wake your loved one up from his sleep (John 5:28,29; John 11:11-15)##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
