“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your beloved Mr. Galloway. His passing was a result of our first parents Adam and Eve. Romans 5:12, "That is why, just as through one man sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death sperad to all men because they had all sinned." As a result of eating the forbidden fruit we all die. We are not without hope. John 5:28-29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgement. Yes, there is going to be a resurrection here on earth. Revelation 21:3-4, tells us that there will be no more death, no more pain, no more outcry, the former things have passed away. The Bible gives us real hope!###imported-begin##T Curtis##imported-end##

“ I would like to share heartfelt condolences with you all. The death of a loved one is so heartbreaking to a family who suffers the loss, and it is something God never wanted us to go through. He created people to live forever; that is his purpose, and even though Adam and Eve lost out on everlasting life for us; nevertheless it is still God's purpose which he will soon carry out. His word never fails, and through the precious blood of his son Jesus we will soon see a permanant end to sickness and death. Isaiah 25,8 tells us that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. One day all those in the graves will come out just as Lazarus did when Jesus ressurected him. Daniel 12,2 promises that there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." May these promises from God strengthen you, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. I know the sadness associated with the loss of one you love and I know the comfort offered by God in his Word the Bible. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 which talks about the hope of a resurrection for the righteous and the unrighteous. After reading these two scriptures please turn your attention to John 3:16 and Matthew 20:28. These two scriptures tell us why we can put faith in the promise of a resurrection. May they provide you with comfort and hope as they have for me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
