

Randolph Scott Harris

June 4, 1951 - February 17, 2002

Randolph Scott Harris, son of the late Reverend Raymond Harris and Ossie B. Harris was born on June 4, 1951 in Greenville, South Carolina. God called him home on Sunday, February 17, 2002. He received his education in New York at Flushing High School. During his childhood, he was an integral part of and a disciple in the New Hope Baptist Church which was founded under his father's guidance. He sang on many of its choirs and served in any and all capacities as asked and needed. At the age of 20, he began service to his country in the uniform of the United States Army. After his service, he spent his early work years on Wall Street. In 1976, Randy and his family moved to Baltimore, MD where he continued to serve Christ at the New Mt. Zion Baptist Church. He also switched careers to follow his creed "to serve and protect" by becoming involved in the field of law enforcement. In his early years in Baltimore, Randy began his association with the Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity, Incorporated. His fraternity brothers have stood by and behind him during his good and bad times. Randy made many friends wherever he went regardless of the circumstances in which he found himself. He will be sorely missed by everyone who knew him and will remain a friend and devoted man in everyone's heart and memories. He leaves to mourn his wife, Vanessa R. Taylor-Harris, his mother, Ossie B. Harris, one daughter, Sharon M. Howard, born from his union with Mabel Harris, one son-in-law, Brian Howard; one grandson, Jeshurun Raymond James Howard; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ It was truly a pleasure knowing Randy. He always had a kind word. I can remember notarizing his gun renewal permit form and he would say "How much I owe you Baby Doll" I would say to him I don't charge friends. He did not like my logic so he would pretend to have other forms for me to notarize so he could slip money into an envelope filled with blank paper, and I dared not try to give it back to him. Needless to say I will miss seeing him and Vanessa out front having their morning smoke. So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand..Isaiah 41:10###imported-begin##Yolanda R. Parker###imported-end##
