

Randolph S. Scribner

August 21, 1972 - May 31, 2014

RANDOLPH S. SCRIBNER, son of Yvonne Taylor Walker and the late Steffen M. Scribner was born August 2, 1972 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on May 31, 2014 after a short illness surrounded by his mom, aunts, family and friends.

Randy graduated from Randallstown High School. He then attended the International Academy of Hair Design where he began his legacy as Randy “The Barber” Scribner. His first place of employment was at “Basic Black” in Owings Mills, Maryland.

Randy “The Barber” was know throughout the Baltimore area for his signature haircuts called “The Randy” to include; fades, razor shape-ups, artistic hair designs and his special Beijing technique. According to one of his friends, you could walk in as an “ugly duckling” and walk out like a “beautiful prince.”

Randy was a friend, a brother and uncle to many. His loyalty, trustworthiness and dependability were loved by many. He had a quick wit about himself and a smile that would light up a room. Randy was a confidante to many and used his profession to heal and minister while you were in his chair.

He leaves to mourn: his mother, Yvonne Taylor Walker; his grandmother, Teresa N. Stewart; one sister, Laquisha Scribner-Jackson; god-sisters, Taniele Pennington and Paris Taber; seven uncles, four aunts, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Sorry for your loss, may Jehovah give you comfort in your time of need. 1Corinthians 1:3,4.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ Randy was a well loved man that loved to give a helping hand and advice to anyone who needed it. I never met him in person, we became good friends through Facebook. We were like old friends. A day didn't go by that he didn't give his views on the soaps on a page that he helped create. God saw that he was getting weaker, so He took him to his Heavenly home. I pray God conses his friends and family.

“ To the family...
Randy meant so much to so many. Again, I thank God for lending him to us for these moments he was with us. There are so many good memories. He is in no more pain, and surely God gets the glory even during this moment. If there is anything any of us from the class of '90 can do please let someone know. He will always be remembered.
