

Randolph White

March 5, 1961 - September 9, 2005

Randolph (Snake) White was born on March 5, 1961. and entered into eternal rest on September 9, 2005. His childhood was spent in Richmond, Virginia where he attended public schools, graduating from John Marshall High School in 1980. He then served in the United States Marine Corps, and later spent several years as an electrician's apprentice. Randy will be remembered most for his everlasting smile, and his ability to make others "lighten up". Randy loved people and often expressed his feelings through his poetry, because writing was his greatest passion. Randy was a member of Grayland Baptist Church, but in more recent years attended Providence Baptist Church. He is survived by his devoted mother, Malalia S. Jackson; stepfather, Cornelius L. Jackson, father, Randolph White, Sr., sisters, Angela Graham (husband Warren), Renada White-Cummings (husband Anthony), Cheryl Jackson, brothers, Melvin A. White (wife Emma), Carson B. White (wife Lynn), Eric White, Jerome White, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins. Randy will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. In difficult times such as this, it is comforting to know that the bible is a source of comfort. John 5:28,29 tells us that "The hour is coming in which all those in their memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." May we all await the time when our beloved ones be with us again. Until then, may you all find comfort from the holy scriptures.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##
