

Randy Parham

September 17, 1974 - November 2, 2003

Randy Lee Parham, Jr., son of Randy Lee Parham, Sr. and the late Paula Davis, was born on September 17, 1974 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on November 2, 2003. He attended Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Lake Clifton Senior High. He attended University of Maryland Eastern Shore. Randy worked various jobs, but his passion and desire was to be a commercial artist. He always dreamt of being in business for himself. Randy always had an “idea” on how he could be and entrepreneur. Randy was nicknamed “Speed” because he was always running very fast around the house as a small baby boy. We also called him “meat man” because of the length of his head when he was young. He leaves to cherish his memory: his father and step-mother, Randy L. and Charlotte Parham, Sr.; devoted mother, Iris Baez (Millie); his loving and caring grandmother, Gladys Parham (Mama); his big sister, Tearsa Parham who loved him dearly, step-sister, Monica Stanley, little sister, Shavon Parham, and step-sister, Tavia Jones; niece, Jaleea; two nephews, Ashanti and Alexander; two special cousins, Devin Murphy and Jason Palmer; three aunts, Gladys Broady, Cathy Murphy (Tootsie Roll), and Jill Johnson; special “aunt” Anna Palmer; two uncles, Stevie Lambert and Jack Parham; two uncles-in-law, David Murphy, Rev. Marvin Johnson; brother-in-law, Otis Rease and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Man, It's been years and the hurt is still real. Just know I'm doing ok. My smile is still there, but not as big as before! I LOVE being your big/little sister. As you and everyone else knows, you were ...are my best friend, even in death. I still talk to you and hope you are proud of me. Well, I miss you and I miss you bad!!! Trying not to cry, while writing this but, I can't. My Tears of Happiness, Tears of joy, Never Tears of Pain, as you would say name...TEARSA!

PS...Can you rain pennies down on me....I need to feel that you around.

Give Mom, Dad, Momma and your Niece Aisani, a big hug and kiss from me. As for you, dance like we did the night before you died!

“ Dear Tearsa, I am very sorry and completely sad about your loss. I would never in my lifetime ever think of the power of God to send you through this experience. Please stay strong and never forget the memories. I will not. Life here on Earth is temporary and a struggle, but your brother has no more struggles. He is with God. I hope my words and true feeling right now will comfort you with a smile. This is really deep. I can go on and on, but I do feel your pain. God bless your family Always. “ My condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Our family finds much comfort from the Bible. Here is a verse that has a lot of meaning for us- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life."- John 5:28,29 May these words bring much comfort to you also.###imported-begin###Sharon Hill###imported-end##

“ Randy and I were in the 12th grade together. He was an inspiration to our class and the school. Whenever you saw him he was ready to share a smile. I found out about his passing just by visting this website. My heart is heavy because he was a young man full of dreams. To his family please know that he will be missed be many people and we will see him again one day. Thank you Randy for being a great friend and May God continue to allow you to rest in His arms.##imported-begin##Jerrod E. Coates##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn of your loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. It's at times like this that we need comfort, support, and questions answered and the Bible can be that source. At Job 14: 14 a question is asked, " If an able bodied man die, can he live again?" The answer is found at John 11: 25, here Jesus says, " I am the resurrection and the life, he that exercise faith in me, even though he dies, shall live." Yes, Almighty God, through his Son Jesus Christ will bring back our dearly beloved ones into a beautiful paradise. Your beloved one will not be forgotten.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

“ To the Parham Family, as you approach another anniversary of the death of your loved one, just know that God Almighty takes note of those who lose their lives and this pains Him. Please know that comfort from the scripture such as Rev. 21:3, 4 can help with your grief. God promises a resurrection that is sure to take place.##imported-begin##Mrs. Lewis##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ with sincere and heartfelt condolences to the family of randy parham jr. i send this comforting message of hope. death deals such a blow to so many of us because it was never in God's purpose. when Jehovah created man it was intended for him to live forever on a paradise earth with plenty of food, housing and everything good for everyone. adam and eve ruined it all for all their offspring (us). But Jehovah allowed His son, christ jesus to die and give us that same opportunity for life on a paradise earth again. jesus death also allows for the resurrection of all our dead loved ones, including randy. my heart especially goes out to charlotte at this time because she has left messages of missing him, even to 2008. please allow me to sit with you and show you from God's own word how you can see randy again, right here on earth. I need to talk to any of randy's family and friends who would like to know more of what Jehovah promises because there are requirements of you that you need to know about to see randy again. please read john 3:16 for comfort and then contact me at my e-mail address: kic2@verizon.net###imported-begin###kathy commander###imported-end##

“ Dear Tearsa, The last time I saw "Speed" we had bumped into one another in a department store. As soon as he realised that it was me that bright smile came across his face and we hugged, laughed and started talking. I will always cherish that moment and the laughs we had together on Elmora Ave. Sometimes when you talk about him I can hear both the love and hurt in your voice. Please know that I am praying that God will wash away all of your hurt and leave you with nothing but the warmth and love that the two of you shared as siblings. Sincerely, Pam###imported-begin###Pamela James###imported-end##
