

Randy D. Rochester

August 31, 1984 - June 25, 2017

RANDY DEVONE ROCHESTER, better known as “Grip”, was the first born of four brothers. He was the son of Yvonne Evette Rochester and James Knox. He was born on August 31, 1984 in Baltimore, Maryland. Randy was suddenly taken from us on June 25, 2017 at the Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Growing up as a child, Randy was very out spoken, intelligent, optimistic and talented.

He had a major love for sports, such as lacrosse, basketball and football, As he grew older, he gravitated towards music and writing his own lyrics

Later Randy found an amazing hidden talent that would lead him to attend Barber School. He continued through school as he planned on opening his own shop until his sudden death.

Randy made numerous friends over the course of his life, He always had an amazing appearance and a comical sense of humor, full of jokes and laughs, he was a true inspiration to so many

He was preceded in death by his aunt, Vernetta Rochester and uncle, Gregory Rochester (Stink).

Randy leaves to cherish his loving memory his parents, Yvonne Rochester and James Knox; his son, Donnell Rochester; four brothers, Robert and Raymond Rochester, Michael, and Mark Brockington; sister Apryl Randolph; aunts, Sheila Rochester and Deborah Rochester, Uncles, Ronald Rochester, Kevin Rochester, Clarence Hall, and Cornell Rochester; cousins, Yvonne, Charonda, Karena, Angel, Cindy, Daniel, Cedric, Andrew, Devon, and Antwan,; special Friend, Ebony, very Special friend and mentor, Mr. Ryan Moore; and a host of other relatives and friends.
