

Raphael Diago Jones

September 6, 1932 - December 21, 2011

RAPHAEL DIEGO JONES (Pops), was born on September 6, 1932 in Auchenbeddy, in the Parish of Manchester, Jamaica W.I. to the late Hannah Thompson and Ettbourne Jones. He was the oldest of four siblings and also the only son.

He learnt the skill of carpentry. He worked for years with the Brooks Brothers in erecting several housing developments, shopping centers and apartment buildings in and around Kingston and St. Andrew.

He was a sporting enthusiast. In Jamaica he met the love of his life, Joyce Schloss his wife of over fifty years who pre-deceased him. Their union produced four children, Norman, Karen (deceased), Bryan and Pauline. In 1974 he migrated to Baltimore, Maryland to join Joyce. While in Baltimore he worked at Deaton Medical Center as a supervisor. Raphael retired from Medical Center, however he continued to work part-time in his field of construction until his passing.

Raphael will be greatly missed by: his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, sister, Verna Moore; sister-in-law, Evelyn Schloss; nieces, nephews and a host of friends.
