

RaQuan D'Montre Miffin

September 23, 1991 - April 5, 2017

RaQuan D'Montre Miffin affectionately known as "Quan" was born in Henrico County on September 23, 1991. Quan was taught the value of faith and hard work at an early age. He carried on these qualities throughout his entire life. He matriculated through Henrico County Public schools and graduated from Henrico High School. He played football and basketball while in school. He was an avid fan of the Atlanta Falcons, better known to Quan as the "Dirty Birds", and LeBron James whether he was in Cleveland or Miami.

Quan was baptized at an early age at the Second Bethel Baptist Church on Charles City Road in Henrico County, Virginia.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his precious daughter, Kierra Miffin; his parents, Delores Hooper and David Miffin, Jr.; two sisters, Tashoia and RaShawn Miffin; one brother, Jevion Richardson (Kristal); four nieces, Kamari Lewis and Breyonna Forbes, Lhay'moni and Mahkynzie Richardson; three nephews, JaySean and Khayevion Richardson and Jase London; seven uncles, eight aunts, and a host of cousins and other relatives. Quan also leaves a very special friend, Annie McManus; two devoted friends since early childhood, Anthony Stampley (TJ) and Bruce Wilson, Jr.

“ You made it your business to tell me happy birthday because we shared the same date of birth. You'd tell me "happy birthday twin", and I'll say it back! I can truly say I will miss that from you but I have no problem sending your birthday wishes to heaven! RIP RaQuan 🙏 You will missed tremendously!!
