I met Raquel in Girl Scouts. We had troops that often traveled and did events together in the Varina area with both our daughters in our troops. She had such a beautiful soul, very crafty and creative. She was a very positive and inspirational woman and will truly be missed from all that knew her and crossed her path in life. I'll miss you my friend. Special prayer goes out to all the family and friends that mourn Raquel's loss. May she finally rest in Eternal peace. 🙏🙏🙏❤️❤️❤️

“ Working with and knowing Tina was such a blessing. We traveled to a conference together last year where I really got to see her personality shine. She so clearly loved people so much, and had an abundance of stories to share. I cherish the short time we knew each other, and am sending her family my deepest condolences, thoughts, and prayers.

“ I want to send my condolences to the Demery family. When I met Tina, who was hired as a Family Advocate, we became friends immediately because of that moment we called each other friends. Her love and smile will ever be remembered in my thoughts and memory. I will truly miss my friend. I love her and will always love and cherish our short friendship that will last forever in my heart. May God continue to give you strength in this difficult moment. love Diane Cotman

“ Our most sincere condolences to the Demery Family. Thank you Tina for your labor of love in Troop 3240. My girls were so blessed to have such a wonderful role model. Thank you for teaching them true sisterhood. I can still hear you say “Girls, signs up”! Rest in peace.

“ She was very easy to love. One of the kindest spirits on the planet. She was an ANGEL. She influenced me to start my craft room. I found my inner creative soul and I've never looked back. What she did that stood out to me was she LOVED. She LOVED Junie. Like no one else mattered, no one existed when she looked at him. She LOVED her kids. She made being a mom look easy when it's the hardest job on Earth. I learned from her that strength is not about muscles, brawn, height, or anything physical. Strength is really just faith. And faith is just KNOWLEDGE. Faith is KNOWING what others cannot prove. And when you KNOW who YOU love. AND YOU LOVE YOURSELF AS WELL. Being strong is easy. She was sick and tired for HUNDREDS OF DAYS but she STILL fought everyday to LIVE, LOVE, and be present for her family and friends. That is strength. I pray everyone finds peace in KNOWING she rests at last. There is no better place than heaven for ANGELS. - Sisters

My sister Tina, your love and dedication to others define the way you lived. You touched so many lives, including mine. Always willing to help, you gave love freely to everyone you could, and you loved your family without reserve. A loving sister and a lovely friend, your kindness will never be forgotten. My sister, I love you forever. May you live eternally in God's love.
