“ With deepest sympathy to the family. I hope these word of comfort bring you peace of heart and mind. The death of a loved one can indeed be the most upsetting experience of a lifetime. Recovering from grief may take months, a few years, or even longer. Just remember the acute pain you feel in the beginning will lessen in time and life will be more bearable. There is an empty space where before there was a living human. A love one you hold deep within your heart. A love one who you felt would be here until the end of time. Now pain have taken it place. You are given many reasons why but the pain is still there. Why did God allow this to happen to me? You ask and the almighty have answered.

Ecclesiastes 9:11 “I have seen something further under the sun, that the swift do not always win the race, nor do the mighty win the battle, nor do the wise always have the food, nor do the intelligent always have the riches, nor do those with knowledge always have success, Because time and unexpected events overtake them all.”

Job 34:10 “So listen to me, you men of understanding, it is unthinkable for the true God to act wickedly, for the almighty to do wrong.” By Jesus entire life course of integrity to God, including his life sacrifice, he would not do anything to bring you pain. God knows the pain you are going through. 1 Peter 5:7 throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you and your family. Luke 17:6 “Faith”
