

Rashaad K. Smith

May 10, 1999 - July 17, 2022

RASHAAD KAREEM SMITH, the son of Victor Smith and Jay Burkett, was born on May 10, 1999 in Baltimore, Maryland. Rashaad departed this life on July 17, 2022 suddenly. He was affectionately known as “Chink.”

Rashaad embraced Islam. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System.

Growing up, Rashaad was very into sports. You could catch him playing football, basketball, even baseball. Rashaad loved to take time to beat his brothers on Playstation when they weren't playing with other friends. Drawing was also one of Rashaad's many talents, but what some didn't know was he could also dance; and don't tell him he couldn't sing.

As Rashaad got older, he wasn't as much into sports. Yes, he would still play ball, but he loved hanging with his brothers Richard and Rasheed and their friends. Since a baby, Rashaad had a smile that would light up a room. As an adult, that smile got bigger and would brighten up everyone's day.

Before leaving us, Rashaad's main priority was his three children, Rhylee, Royal and Rashaad. He very much enjoyed listening to music, dancing, playing Call of Duty and of course, eating.

Rashaad leaves to cherish his memory: three beautiful children who he loved so dearly, Rhylee, Royal and Rashaad Smith; his devoted mother, Joy Burkett; father, Victor Smith; grandparents, Flora and Gerald Dent; brothers, his twin Rasheed Smith, Richard McCoy, Victor Smith Jr.; and sister, Courtney Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
