

Rashad Akie Hartridge Sr.

January 14, 1984 - August 30, 2021

Rashad Akie Hartridge, Sr. who was affectionately known as "Spider", entered eternal rest on Monday, August 30, 2021.

Spider was born in Richmond, Virginia on January 14, 1984. Spider was raised in Northside Richmond where at a young age his ability to entertain his family and friends was undeniable. The party started as soon as he walked in, lighting up the room with his bright smile and sense of humor. He attended Richmond Public Schools and determinedly earned his GED.

Over the years he worked as a line cook in various restaurants. Just two years ago he married his love, Andrea, who he adored for 24 years. Spider leaves cherished memories to many loved ones including: his beloved wife, Andrea Hartridge and their two children, Rashad Jr., and Ti`Amore Hartridge; his mother Tonyette Hartridge Robinson (Eugene Robinson, deceased); his sister, Delacia Hartridge; his brother, Charles Hartridge; two devoted aunts, Michelle Kidd and Van Terry; an uncle, Jerrod Shepperson; three nieces, Zaleja, Davionne and Charleia Hartridge; three nephews, Marquan Cole, Charles Jr., and Chad Hartridge; and a host of cousins and other close relatives and friends. Spider is preceded in death by; Eugene Robinson (stepfather) Mattie Kidd (grandmother), Lillian Archer (grandmother), Elnora Hartridge (great aunt), Deborah Hartridge (great cousin), Tonnisha McCoy (cousin) and Javon Barksdale (cousin).

Spider was loved by many and will truly be missed by all who had the privilege of being in his company.
