

Rasheedah S. Muhammad

June 11, 1986 - September 18, 2012

RASHEEDAH SHENAE MUHAMMAD, daughter of Tracey M. Roney and Abdul H. Muhammad. She was born on June 11, 1986 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was removed from this life on September 18, 2012.

Rasheedah received her education in Baltimore City Public School System and later proceeded training as a Certified Nursing Assistant and sought gainful employment after. Rasheedah had a special love for her family and friends, no matter where they were in the world. If you needed something, she without hesitation would go all out to help. Rasheedah was loved by many, there are nothing but good words for her. Rasheedah was an avid reader, I don't believe it was a novel she hadn't read. One of her favorite books was "THE COLDEST WINTER EVER," by Sistah Souljah. Rasheedah loved football, but didn't have any love for the Raisins, as she called them (lol). She was a true Peyton Manning fan all the way through. Rasheedah loved to dance, although she had no rhythm. She was truly devoted to her niece, Aminah and nephew, Lil Arty. Rasheedah has numerous friends and family, whom she will be missed.

Rasheedah was preceded in death by: her grandparents, Samuel Roney, Jr., Marsha Roney and Percy Mitchell; great-grandparents, Samuel Roney, Sr., Azalea Brown and Olga.

Rasheedah leaves to mourn: her mother, Tracey Roney; father, Abdul Muhammad; her stepfathers, Anthony Tyree and Samtoya Williams; paternal grandparents, Inell Roney, Samira Muhammad and Kenny Henry; sisters, Aisha and Jamilh Muhammad Fatima Tyree; brothers, Jaleel Tyree and Tariq Henry Artemis Neil; her best friends, Tiera, Missy, Nazzy and Ciera; godmother, Antionette Little; godsister, Larrell Little; a host of aunts, uncles, great-aunts, great-uncles, other relatives and friends. We all will miss you.

“ I am so deeply sorry for the loss of your dear Rasheedah. She was so young, and I can imagine the deep sorrow you are going through right now. I know, because I lost my only son at a young age as well. It's been 15 years and I still miss him so very much. I pray for you, and I know that our loving heavenly Father will carry you through this. One day he promises, that if we are faithful to him, we will see our loved ones come to life again. The apostle Paul promised: And I have hope toward God that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous, and the unrighteous. Acts 24:15. Adam brought this pain to the human race, but Jesus will erase this pain by means of his ransom sacrifice. 1st Corinthians 15:22 promises: "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ, all will be made alive." May Jehovah comfort you and sustain you until that glorious day of the resurrection arrives.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. When a loved one dies the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such a time we can find comfort in Jesus promise made to all who have loss loved one in death at John 5:28,29 which reads: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”

Delores Allen - September 20, 2012 at 06:50 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
