October 15, 1977 - January 15, 2002

“I came forth from the Father, and I came into the world. Again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. Ray Antonio Gregory, Jr., beloved son of Vanessa Rogers and Ray Gregory Sr., suddenly departed this life on Tuesday, January 15, 2002 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. “Pig,” as he was affectionately called, was born on October 15, 1977 in Baltimore, Maryland. He attended Baltimore City Public Schools and later received his G.E.D. While at a young age, he loved sports and received several trophies and certificates for his outstanding athletic abilities. Ray leaves to mourn: a loving daughter, Crystal A. Gregory; his loving and devoted parents, Vanessa Rogers and Ray Gregory Sr.; two brothers, Trinell Gregory and Tyrell Burley; two sisters, Tyia and Keyonna Burley; two nieces, Daezire Gregory and Makaylah Clowney; his grandparents, Charles and Lillie Gregory (Albert and Ruby Rogers preceded him in death); aunts, Cheryl, Theresa, Deborah, Charlotte, Jennifer, Karen, Michell and Rhonda; four uncles, Alvin, Floyd, Kenneth and Solomon; godmother, Audrey; and a host of other relatives and friends. WE LOVE YOU PIG! God loves you Pig, we do too, But God did for you what we could never do, He gave you peace, love, tranquility and His Son Jesus To set you free And who shed His blood for you and me. We love you, Pig, but God loves you best Thank you God for letting Pig rest. Love always, Your Family
