“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.###imported-begin###Senita Swann###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible gives us much hope for our loved ones who have been taken away by "enemy death".(See First Corinthians 15:26} Acts 24:15 lovingly declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." That means our dead loved ones have the prospect of coming back to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (See Revelation 21:3-5, Isaiah 65:17, Matthew 5:5) It is my hope that you and your family receive much comfort and strength as you think about these loving promises found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Death is something none of us look forward to. Noone wants to lose their their loved ones. It's like an unreality, and so very painful. I am so sorry. One day though we won't be shedding tears of sorrow, because Jehovah God promises a world free of pain and sorrow. Isaiah 33:24 lets us know that one day soon , "No resident will say, "I am sick.' Also Rev 21:3,4 lets us know, "And he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more." Won't it be wonderful to see the dead come to life? Daniel 12:2 tells us how possible this is, because it says; "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." May those promises from God sustain you, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
