“ To my loving father, you were always so loving, caring and giving. You passed on such great qualities to your children and grandchildren. I love you and miss you so much. You have two new great-grand children and one on the way that you did not have the pleasure of meeting, Morgan, Trestan and Madison (who will not arrive until October). You were the best father and grand-father ever. You would always dance with us. How I would love to dance with my father again. This is the Father's Day weekend and memories just flow, remembering how we would plan Father's Day for you and would have a lot of fun. Dad I love you and until we are together again, rest.

Your daughter, Stephanie

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 says- "There is going to be a resurrection." For many this will take place on a paradise earth with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (See Revelation 21:3-5, Isaiah 33:24, Psalm 37:29) May you receive much comfort and strength when you reflect on these loving promises from the Bible. And may you draw close to the maker of them Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear family, may God comfort you on the loss of your dear loved one. Sooner or later we all have to face losing a loved one in death, and it is certainly not an easy thing to deal with. Noone should have to go through such pain. Our heavenly father knows how much we grieve, and it is not his purpose for us to suffer this way. That is why one day he promises that this enemy death, will be done away with forever. 1st Cor. 15:26. Then according to John 5:28,29, "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out to a ressurection of life. I pray that you receive the comfort that you need and the strength to go on.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To family and friends: Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It's at times like this that having people who care helps us to endure the pain that death brings. However, remembering that God cares can bring us even greater comfort. We are assured of His care at 1 Peter 5:7 which invites us to throw our anxiety upon God because He cares for us. He has shown that care in giving His son as a ransom in our behalf (John 3:16). Further, on the basis of that ransom, He will fulfill the resurrection promise found at John 5:28, 29 and Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##M Bedford##imported-end##

“ To the Washington Family, God's Word realistically shows that it is natural to experience grief when a loved one dies. Even the perfect man Jesus wept over the death of his friend Lazarus. (John 11:35, 36) When a loved one dies, we may experience nearly overwhelming sorrow, but faith in the promises in God's Word can help us to endure such grief. 'I have hope toward God,' said Paul, 'that there is going to be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous.' (Acts 24:15) We need to have faith in God's provision for multitudes to be raised to life. (John 5:28, 29) What joy there will be when loved ones are awakened from death's sleep. In the meantime, faith will not remove all sorrow, but it will keep us close to God, who helps us to endure bereavement##imported-begin##M. Douglas##imported-end##
