

Raymond I. Carter

April 16, 1965 - November 6, 2017

RAYMOND IRVIN CARTER, affectionately known as “Irvin or Smash” was born to Mr. & Mrs. Randolph and Delores Carter on April 16, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland. God called his precious child home suddenly on November 6, 2017. Irvin was a child of God and gift to all.

Irvin attended Baltimore City Public Schools where he received his diploma. School is where his love for basketball began. He was known for his wicked left hand. He had a love for sports and he sure loved them Steelers. He even made Deshawn a Steelers fan when he was first born. He went out and bought all this Steelers baby gear like father like son as he say. Early on his parents realized that he had a gifted talent in carpentry when he assisted his grandfather in building a house at a young age. Irvin was employed by Blue Cross and Blue Shield and Scott Construction Company. He later became blessed with his calling of being a self-employed contractor where he loved to remodel, build, paint and repair homes of any kind.

Irvin was a family man. The love he had for his family was constantly shown in all the thing he did. He loved spending quality time with his wife, kids, grandkids, mother and family. He was a great son and brother.

Irvin will be deeply missed by everyone that knew him. He precedes in death his sister Denise, Grandmothers Daisy and Arlene, Grandfathers Harry and Freedie. Uncles Jackie, Keith, Brian, Freddie, Jr. JB and other family members.

Irvin leaves to cherish his life memories: mother Delores (Princess) Carter, Father Randolph H. Carter; 1 Brother Randolph (DJ) Carter, Jr.; Wife Glenda; Four children Dorian, Lakeisha, Deshawn, and Tahj; 4 grandchildren, Lamya, Jeremiah, Destiny and Wayne Jr; 3 Aunts Lashore (Boobie), Shirley, and Linda; 4 uncles Russell Glenn, Linnard (Woody)Raymond and Walter. 6 nieces; Denise (Monique). Chiresse, Ashiel Cortni, Jasmine, and Denisha. 2 nephews; Antwon, and Allen Jr. (Chuck-Chuck). 8 great nieces and nephews and a host of cousins and friends.

“ I always like remembering " Irvin" as himself! Thoughtful of others, caring, fun loving, but knowing when to be serious/business minded. And most of all a great father and friend. My deepest sympathy to all his family and friends.
