

Raymond E. Butler

January 6, 1959 - November 20, 2009

RAYMOND E. BUTLER was born in Baltimore, Maryland on January 6, 1959 to Frances Thomas Butler and the late Daniel Walter Butler. He was affectionately known as Ray “Turk” Butler. Raymond attended Baltimore city public schools. To name the last “Southwestern High School” in 1980. He was blessed with a beautiful daughter “Latonya Butler”. Raymond was called home on November 20, 2009. Raymond worked hard all his life. Being as skillful as he was, he was able to explore many job opportunities. Raymond was employed with several companies to name a few: RSI Logistics, Inc. where he was very close with his co-workers which in turn became friends. He had also been employed at the cafeteria for the Social Security Administration. He was employed at PNR Enterprise, UPS, Au Bon Pain and also Aramark in the world famous Baltimore Ravens and Oriole Stadiums. He did all kinds of odd jobs up until his untimely death. Raymond's number one passion was to help any and everyone in need. Raymond's hobbies were taking care of his fish, basketball, baseball, football, bike riding and fitness! He very much enjoyed socializing with family and friends. Raymond enjoyed his music and movies most of all. Raymond lived a full and blessed life. He was a very giving, as well as generous friend. He gave and worked until the end. He strived to be the best son, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, co-worker and friend he could be. Because of that, he was loved dearly by many and will truly be missed by all! Raymond was preceded in death by: his father, Daniel Butler and three brothers, Ronald, Donald and William. He leaves memories with his mother

Mrs. F.T.B. Lewis; his daughter, Latonya Butler; his grandson, Daniel Wise Jr.; his sister, Beverly Butler; four brothers, Daniel, Walter, Roland and Dana Butler. He also leaves a host of nieces and nephews; a loving and devoted friend, Theola; another devoted friend, Cedric; and a dedicated co-worker, Baycee. We all knew and loved you, but GOD knows and loves you best.

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Mr. Butler's family and friends. When death separates us from our loved ones deep sorrow may result, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8, and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the resurrection hope by stating: "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon he will by means of his son Jesus, bring our enemy 'to nothing' (1Corinthians 15:26). What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from that wonderful hope found in the Bible from Jehovah God and Jesus Christ.(Psalm 83:18 and John 3:16)###imported-begin###Mrs. Sharon Hill###imported-end###
