

Raymond E. Stinson

December 7, 1955 - November 16, 2002

RAYMOND E. STINSON, JR., son of Ruth Miller and the late Raymond E. Stinson, Sr., very quietly and peacefully entered into eternal rest on Saturday, November 16, 2002 at the University of Maryland Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Raymond was born on December 7, 1955 in Easton Memorial Hospital, Easton, Maryland. He received his first three years of education at South County Elementary School in Grasonville, Maryland. After moving to Baltimore, the remaining three years were received from the Baltimore City public schools. His high school education was received from Fairmont High School, graduating on June 2, 1974 with honors in auto mechanics. After completion of his education, he was employed by Sheet Metal Coating Lithograph, until they went out of business. His next employment was with Ball Metal. He moved to New Jersey and became employed with Wagner Youth Correctional Facility. Raymond was a very kind and loving person. He was always ready to help any and everyone at all times. He was a multi-talented person. His talents included caretaker, cook, mechanic, electrician, housekeeper, and most of all, he was an avid fisherman. There was never a task put before him that he could not handle without perfection. Raymond leaves to mourn his loss: his mother, Ruth Miller; wife, Marilyn; daughter, Tiffany; grandfather, Roy Girod; nephew, Alfred, Jr., niece, Tina; a very devoted friend, lantha; five sisters, Shirley, Pamela, Carolyn, Jean and Tarita; two adopted brothers, Bernard and Avar; sisters-in-law, Glenetta, Peaches, Loretta and Christine; two aunts, Rosalee Butler; four aunts-in-law, Daisy

Miller, Geneva Miller, Lois Miller and Christine Girod; one very devoted cousin-sister who was his buddy and big game fishing partner, Taneisa Butler; never to be forgotten, the love of his life, a little eight-year old girl named Tane'Ja Wilson who called him Pop-pop and stuck closer to him than his own skin. There are many other relatives and friends too numerous to mention, but you know who you are.

“ We join you in your heartache and pain. Raymond's life cut off just so short. However, his death shows us the way to God. We are so much into our own selves worrying about things that are not eternal. Raymond's death points us in the right direction, a direction that leads to the cross of Christ. At the cross, we find peace. At the cross, we find love. At the cross, we have hope. At the cross, we obtain God's righteousness. All we have to do is to acknowledge God's forgiveness of sin through the cross work of His son Jesus. His death gives us life with meaning. His death gives us life. May God grace overshadow as you grieve. With deep regrets, The Hicks Family###imported-begin###Otis Hicks and Family###imported-end###

“ Cousin Ruth, may the Lord continue to bless and keep you. I don't understand right now how it feels to bury your child, but Ruth one thing I know for sure and true, Psalms 46. A friend of my mom's pass this verse to me when I was a young child in the hospital and I hold it true to my heart. Everything WILL be alright.##imported-begin##Sharon Walker##imported-end##
